[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

The interesting religious meetings that has been in progress at the Baptist Church in Americus, for the past three weeks, still continues.—Weekly Republican.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Joel Dees, an old and highly respected citizen of Wilkinson county, was murdered by some person or persons unknown.—Macon Citizen.

The Rome Hollow Ware and Stove Manufacturing Company commenced successful work a few days ago. They employ 25 hands. The company has ample means. F. J. Stone, President of the company, and Langdon Bowie, Secretary.—Rome Courier.

Griffin is to have a shoe manufactory. Col. Sam Bailey is recovering from an attack of paralysis, with which he was stricken on Tuesday last. Bear Creek, a town on the Macon and Western Railroad, is to have a telegraph office.—Middle Georgian.

Monroe county Fair commences next Friday. Steve Smith has been sentenced to serve in the penitentiary from Monroe, for burglary. A $10 counterfeit note on the Farmer's and Manufacturers National Bank, of Poughkeepsie, New York, has been "shoved in" on a Forsyth mercant.—Monroe Advertiser.

A meeting of great interest is progressing at New Hope Church two miles from Cartersville. Twenty-six head of blooded cattle from Kentucky, arrived in Cartersville on the 1st and will be exhibited at the Fair. The old mail route from Cartersville to Huntsville, Paulding county, and the post office at Huntsville has been re-established. Cartersville Express.

The family residence of the late General Clanton, in Montgomery, came near being burned on Saturday last. The fire took in the roof, as is supposed, from the chimney of the kitchen. It was extinguished before much damage was sustained. Money is said to be very tight now and more so in Columbus than for several months. The rate of interest is also higher. The resolutions introduced into the Council meeting of Columbus on Monday night to appropriate $200,000 to the Bainbridge, Cuthbert and Columbus Railroad, was lost.—Columbus Sun.

Miss Buie is canvassing Augusta for funds to purchase suitable buildings in Charlotte, North Carolina, for establishing a permanent seminary for the education of Confederate orphans. A difficulty occurred in Augusta Monday evening between J. J. Browne and James Neal, in which Neal received a pistol ball in the right shoulder. Mr. Madden, of Augusta, fell fourteen feet into a cellar cutting his head against a piece of lumber. "Bushy Head," Chief of the Cherokee Indians in North Carolina, is visiting the above city. Chronicle and Sentinel.

Colonel John D. Stewart was, on last Sabbath, ordained as a regular Baptist Clergyman. Colonel Samuel Bailey is confined to his bed by a rather severe attack of sickness. Jim Nelson, colored, struck another colored man, Redding, on the head last Sunday from the effects of which he has since died. The gin house of Jeff. Ellis, of Spalding county, was consumed by fire on Sunday night, together with the screw and all the cotton he had picked out. Hon. James Eppinger, of Pike county, died on Saturday last.—Griffin Star.

The new fountain has been placed in position in Chippewa Square, in Savannah. Savannah has a drunken woman. All the German organizations of the above city turned out on Monday and participated in the ceremonies connected with the new German Fire Engine Hall. Appropriate speeches were made by two little girls. A supper, toasts and a dance wound up the festivities of the day. A number of the citizens of Savannah gave Manager Templeton a benefit Tuesday night. A new local drama, entitled "The Savannah Firemen," is down on the bill; also a three-act drama by a Savannah lady, entitled "The Virgin of Vesta."—Savannah News.

A gentleman, from Wilkinson county, informs us that one of the best and most extensive planters in that county will not realize more than an average bale of cotton to eight acres. The crop, he says, is woefully cut off. The damage done the Macon and Augusta Railroad by the storms some weeks ago, is estimated at $30,000. A gentleman of Washington county measured an acre of land on his farm last week, gathered and measured the corn accurately. The yield was 41¼ bushels and 3 quarts to the acre. The Good Templars are increasing in Sandersville.—Central Georgian.

The regular exercises of Wesleyan Female college will be continued under the charge of the present faculty. The trustees will meet at once to arrange for the vacancy caused by the sudden death of President Bonnell. The cotton receipts at all the Macon warehouses on Monday were 431, the largest of the season. The residence of Mr. Byrum Hood, in Dawson, was burned on Saturday night last, the result of accident. The exclusive privilege of selling spirituous refreshments on the fair grounds at Macon was knocked down at auction to George D. Lawrence for $2,325. Mayor Banks, of Baltimore, will be a visitor to the Georgia State Fair. The Ordinary and Clerk of the Superior Court of Bibb county have moved to their offices in the new Court House. Judge Law, of Savannah, was in Macon last Sunday. He is one of Georgia's oldest lawyers, being in his seventy-ninth year. Though his locks are silvery and his step feeble, his eye has lost none of its brilliancy, nor have the passing years told upon his towering intellect. He loves to talk of the days of Lumpkin, Nisbet, and Warner, when the times had not degenerated; when honor and worth were held in higher esteem than party trickery and wire pulling. His estimable lady is in a very low state of health. Telegraph and Messenger.

Superior Courts.

Editors Constitution: I see that considerable interest is being manifested concerning our Superior Courts. Complaints are made that they are not held regular, that but little business is done when they are held, and that a great number of cases remain on the Dockets with no prospect of being reached for trial, while the parties and witnesses, at a great cost, are compelled to attend court to no purpose. Various remedies are suggested by those affected—more courts, competent Judges, continous terms, and the like. There is, undoubtedly, much cause for complaint in some of the circuits, and the Judges should be required to discharge their duty faithfully. The Legislature should give the people relief as soon as possible by removing incompetent and indolent Judges, or pass some law depriving them of their salary until it is made to appear that they have tried or legally continued all the cases on their Dockets at the regular or adjourned terms of their courts.

The law makes it the duty of the Judge to try or legally continue at each term every case on the Dockets, and if the term is not long enough, he is empowered to call a special or an adjourned term for the purpose. When it is made to appear that the Judge has occupied all of his time in holding his courts and has been unable to clear his Dockets, then, only, will it be time to talk of organizing other courts or continuing the District Court. This is an important matter and should not be overlooked, the prosperity of the country and the peace of society depend on the prompt administration of the law.

All About the Concert at Grantville.

GRANTVILLE, GA., September 30, 1871.

Editors Constitution: With your permission we will give your readers a brief sketch of our visit to this place. We were met at the depot by Major Moreland, one of nature's noblemen, who kindly invited us to partake of the hospitalities of his home during our sojourn here, which we politely accepted, knowing its great attractions. We found his elegant lady and accomplished daughters, Miss J. and F., ready to receive us with a cordial welcome. The Old Dominion in her brightest days could produce no family superior to this in hospitality. The joyous hours flew by on rapid wings, and soon brought the night of all nights to the young people of Grantville.

The grand concert and charades, given under the auspices of the literary club of this place, to which we were specially invited, were billed for the evening, and the sable curtains of night had scarcely closed around us before our town friends and country cousins had crowded the house to overflowing, but thanks to Mrs. M., we were provided with chairs near the stage where we could see and here all that was going on. The musical department was conducted by Mrs. Moreland and Harris. Professor Schoeller, of Hogansville, was present and aided those ladies no little in sustaining their part of the programme. Many of the songs and dialogues are worthy of mention, but a want of space will crowd them out. We can mention only a few of the most prominent ones.

"How to find an Heir," that difficult task was left to the young men of the village to decide. How they settled it without pistols and coffee was a mystery to us, but it was finally decided in favor of a needy and seedy looking relation. It would take forty-seven lawyers to explain the case.

But variety is the spice of life, so we thought when a class of little girls appeared in uniform to go through the gymnastic exercise. Their teacher, Miss Jennie M., is certainly proficient in that branch or education, and we recommend her to the board of the W. F. College, where she is a student for a professorship in that department.

"The Child of the Regiment," by Miss Sallie Stafford, was universally applauded. She has a flexible voice, full of power and music.

A solo, by Master Howard Harris, "I'm My Daddy's Only Son," was very good for one of his years.

"Our Country Aunt" was a perfect success. Mrs. Dr. Smith performed the difficult roll of the country aunt. Every part was well sustained.

"Our Country Cousin" was excellent. Mr. P. Stafford in that character is hard to beat.

Mr. Bob Word then made his appearance and sang a comic song—"Such agittin' up Stars."

"Five Nights in a Drunkard's Life" was very feelingly illustrated.

But the grand final was the "Grecian Bend" in its full tide of glory. Mr. Bob Word makes the best bend we have ever seen; a bed-tick would hardly hold the contents of it.

We wish that time and space would allow us to give a fuller account of this successful entertainment. It was one of the many that are given by this clever and intelligent community.

Political News Items.

[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

For the first time in the history of our government a Secretary of the Treasury of the United States is in the field actively electioneering in a State political canvass.

Recently, in a speech at Lynn, General Butler said: "I thank God I am here at last with my neighbors, my constituents, my friends—at home." The Massachusetts Radicals seemed to have considered "at home" the best place for him, and have there decided to leave him.

General Butler ran as the Grant candidate for Governor in Massachusetts, and had the full support of the Federal office-holders in that State. He was defeated, and that shows what Grant may expect when he claims the delegation from Massachusetts to the National Convention. Sumner snuffed out Butler, and he will extinguish Grant in like manner.

Conklin and Murphy have conquered in New York, and Greeley and Fenton must take back seats. Greeley, in alluding to the convention which excluded his delegates, says, "We accept the ticket nominated at Syracuse." He licks the hand that smites him, and supports a ticket that in accordance with his own statement was nominated in fraud.

All over the country the Radical party is playing a desperate game to retain control of the government. They devised the Ku-Klux bill to keep the South in subjection; they organized an onslaught upon Tammany with a view of holding the Democracy of the country responsible for all the malfeasances charged upon the New York officials; and now they are flooding the country with false statements relative to the positions of the parties and our general political condition.

THE BRITISH BLONDES.

The Thompson party now playing at Wallack's attract a great deal of attention from the swells of New York. The ladies are pretty, and we have the authority of the New York Star that they are good, too, if not great. Miss Millie Cook and Miss Kate Edgarton are particularly mentioned as handsome and virtuous, and of course they are subjected to various and numerous insults from bread and butter admirers. Two of these admirers, according to the Star, recently sent them notes requesting an interview at a place mentioned. They were greatly grieved, and rushed to their business manager, Samuel Colville, with tears in their eyes and the notes in their fingers. The rest of the story is as follows:

Having "spotted" the youthful miscreants, Mr. Colville awaited them at the door, after the performance. Whether it was the stern visage Mr. Colville wore, or guilty conscience, we cannot say, but one of the young men did not wish to comply with that gentleman's request to step into the private office. The other assured him "it was all right," evidently under the impression that Mr. Colville was going to arrange a meeting. Mr. Colville, however, unceremoniously pushed the hesitating Adonis into the private office, and entering on his heels he closed and locked the door. "Now, sir;" said Mr. Colville, removing his coat, "I know all. If you don't both sit down there, and write apologies to Miss Cooke and Miss Edgarton, whom you so cruelly and grossly insulted, neither of you can leave this room until you have beaten the life out of me. I know your names, and you must sign them in full."

For a few minutes there was an ominous pause, the heavy breathing of the indignant pugilistic Colville, strong in the cause of the right, breaking or disturbing the silence which reigned. One of the gentlemen would cheerfully render ample apology in person if presented to the young lady. "I would not insult her by introducing you into her presence," exclaimed Mr. Colville. "No; I want a written apology, and must have it." The other young man nervously paraded the apartment. On being appealed to by the other, he guessed the apology had better be written, whereupon it was suggested he should do the writing. He, however, was too nervous to attempt literary composition, and his companion had never done anything of the kind. Still, he would write if Mr. Colville would dictate, whereupon the apology was written and signed, and copied by the other over his signature.—Savannah Advertiser.

LEAVING IN HASTE.—Nathan Scoggins, the Kuklux Commissioner of the "best government the world ever saw," who has been so active in arresting men after initiating them into the Ku Klux Klan, was seen after he left this city, crossing into South Carolina with a loaded wagon at the Nicholson's Ferry, at the mouth of Sandy Run. Nathan has gray, or gander eyes, is five feet eight inches high, and weighs 149½ pounds, avoirdupois. He had with him about $900, paid by the government for detective service. He is wanted here as a witness to prove he initiated men into the Ku Klux Klan, telling them the purpose was to support the Government and maintain the peace and order of society. Raleigh Sentinel.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 4.—Mayor Hall appeared this morning at the Yorkville police court to answer charges preferred against him for signing fraudulent warrants. He waived examination, and offered bail in any amount. Judge Barrett, counsel for prosecution, said there was no necessity for the Mayor giving bail. It was not contemplated to hold him in durance.

The Democratic State Central Committee has been in session since 9 o'clock. It has transpired that Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, of Westchester, is to be made temporary chairman. The position was tendered Allen G. Beach but he declined it. Tammany is pressing its claims to representation in the convention with renewed energy and attempts are being made to conciliate its delegates, but thus far without success. It is probable that they will appear on the floor of the convention when the matter will be referred to the Committee on Credentials. It is said that Tammany accepts Potter for temporary chairman.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, October 4.—The storm this morning uprooted trees and prostrated the telegraph wires on the New Orleans, Mobile and Jackson Railroad. The road is slightly overflown causing the trains to stop running. A strong northeast wind has prevailed here for several days past which filled lake Ponchartrain from the Gulf. The northeast storm with rain began last night, and still continues. Fears of another overflow of water over the Mobile and New Orleans Railroad at three different points between the city and the Rigoletts, are entertained.

The steamship Liberty from Baltimore to New Orleans put into Pensacola on account of a lost rudder in the gale on the 29th of September.

HARTFORD, October 4.—Returns from 114 towns show the Republicans have carried 67, the Democrats 67, and in 16 mixed tickets were elected.

SALT LAKE, October 4.—Daniel H. Wills, Mayor of Salt Lake and Third President of the Mormon Church, has been arrested for lewdness, and bailed in the sum of $5,000.

The Wealth of Statesmen.

Jefferson died comparatively poor. Indeed, if Congress had not purchased his library, and given for it five times its value, he would with difficulty have kept the wolf from the door.

Madison saved money, and was comparatively rich. To add to his fortune, however, that of his widow, Congress purchased his manuscript papers and paid $30,000 for them.

Martin Van Buren died very rich. Throughout his political life he looked out for his interest. It is not believed that he ever spent thirty shillings in politics. His party shook the bush and he caught the bird.

Daniel Webster squandered a million in his life time, the product of professional and political speculations. He died leaving his property to his children and his debts to his friends. The former sold for less than $20,000, the latter exceeding $250,000.

James K. Polk left about $150,000, $50,000 of which he saved from his Presidency of four years.

John Tyler left $50,000. Before he reached the Presidency he was a bankrupt. In office he husbanded his means and then married a rich wife.

James Monroe, the sixth President of the United States, died in New York so poor that his remains found a resting place through the charity of friends.

John Quincy Adams left some $150,000, the result of industry, prudence and inheritance. He was a man of method and economy.

Zachary Taylor left $150,000.

Millard Fillmore is a wealthy man, and keeps his money in a strong box. It will not be swallowed up in speculation nor squandered in vice.

☞ Mrs. Swisshelm says: "Your crooked shined, humped shouldered house, with a wen on one side, a wart on the other, a factory chimney on the door, and pilot house on the roof, may make an interesting feature in a landscape, but for a house to live in commend me to the generous old square mansion, such as most abound in the rural districts of the Keystone State. The wide centre hall, rooms on each side, and C kitchen, for homestead architecture, never has and never can be equaled."

☞ Let us of Virginia go on making tobacco, wheat, corn, raising vegetables and fruits, improving our lands, developing our trade, establishing manufactories, attracting population, living economically, and doing our duty as good citizens, and it will not be long before we will find ourselves independent and prosperous. Material wealth will carry with it political influence, and we may resume our place as the first and foremost of the American States."—Richmond Whig.

☞ Recruiting for the army is progressing so slowly that the Courier-Journal thinks that Grant will have to work hard to get enough soldiers together to carry the elections in the South. Present appearances indicate that the good man has reckoned without his host.

☞ Garibaldi still goes a little knock-kneed when he travels through the English language. At a recent interview with an admirer who complimented him on the services rendered his people during his life, he replied that he had performed but a few part of his duty.

☞ A young man says that there may have been such a thing as real true love in olden times, but that now the notion is entirely obsolete; and if you ask a young lady now-a-days to share your lot, she immediately wants to know how large that "lot" is.—Index.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fevers, Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent powers to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

A full report of the decisions of the Supreme Court is furnished to THE CONSTITUTION exclusively, by the Reporter of the Court.

Something to be Remembered.

A contemporary announces this solemn truth: "A Ku-Klux bud y'elds Radical fruit." There is nothing truer, and we wish the fact could be impressed on every thoughtless mind in the South. A Ku-Klux man is an enemy to his own people, whether he intends it or not, and there is no telling the amount of harm he may bring upon them. It will be measured only by the avarice of the Radical party and their hatred of the Southern people.

☞ It was particularly deemed desirable that the intrinsic force of the New Departure should have been treated in the fall elections North this year, unembarrassed by Southern opposition; as the formation of the National Democratic platform in 1872 would have been a matter of easier solution. As a local experiment, the New Departure, as it is injuriously called, would have shown its power; public sentiment would have been settled by it to a certain extent, and the naked question of centralism could have been more auspiciously brought before the public mind North, relieved from the blinding prejudices of the war feeling. By nationalizing these local contests, we have done harm to the Democratic cause. By Southern opposition to the Northern local attempt to bring war issues, we have, we fear, sectionalized the question, united the Republican party, impaired the prospect for a fair hearing on the great issue of constitutionalism against centralism, and made defeat this fall a certainty, and an embarrassing preliminary to the great national battle of 1872.

The State Road Matter.

The news from Atlanta seems to indicate that there is sad want of discretion on the part of those who are acting for the people in the investigation of the State Road robbers. We hope that General Toombs will take control of the matter, and not permit prosecutions to be begun merely to gratify personal spleen before the evidence in each case is fully prepared. With the most cautious management and intelligent forecast, the difficulties in the way of procuring satisfactory evidence will be great, and those having control of the matter during General Toombs' absence, should be careful to make no premature or precipitate action. Let us have no arrests in cases where the evidence is not certain to procure a conviction. Mere arrests are not what the people want. They want the thieves who have been robbing the State for the last three years discovered and punished.

The Atlanta Fair.

This occasion promises to be one of unusual interest. Never have the people of this section been so thoroughly awakened and interested in agricultural and industrial exhibitions as now, and nowhere are the inducements for a large attendance of exhibitors better than Atlanta and surrounding country holds out.

The different leading transportation lines are offering to bring freights and passengers at reduced rates, and the North and West will pour in to the Fair a large exhibition Let Atlanta and surrounding country respond also liberally, and make the Fair a grand success. Atlanta's enterprises are a subject of comment abroad, and the men who compose the Atlanta Agricultural and Industrial Association are among our leading citizens, who are known to take hold of nothing in a half way manner.

The entries already made on the books of the Secretary, exceed in number those made up to within one week of the State Fair held here last year. This augurs well, and we shall not be surprised if the Fair commencing on the 16th instant, exceeds in point of exhibition and attendance the State Fair of 1870.

Something about Boutwell's Radical Humbugging with Our Bonds.

The Washington Patriot has been making some calculations. We give their substance.

On page 196, Finance Report, 1870, there is a tabular statement showing the whole amount of bonds purchased by Secretary Boutwell from July 1, 1869, to July 1, 1870, from which it appears that the amount purchased was $123,429,100, for which he paid $141,505,298 70.

The amount which the government owed was the face of the bond; the amount paid exceeded the amount owed just $18,076,198 70.

Thus, in 1870, nearly one-third of the amount expended by the Democrats in 1860, for all purposes, was, by the Secretary of the Treasury, in violation of law, donated to the bondholders, most of whom are European capitalists, who obtained the bonds at less than fifty cents on the dollar.

It would ordinarily be supposed that the government, having bought in one year $123,428,100 of its bonds, would, at the end of the year, be that much less in debt; but by referring to the first of the Secretary's report it will be seen that the debt was reduced in that year only $101,601,916 88.

The question now presented is, what became of the $22,000,000 of difference? If these bonds have not been cancelled, who got them? If they have been cancelled, why was not the debt reduced $123,000,000 instead of $101,000,000?

On page 196, Finance Report, it is stated that $123,000,000 of bonds cost nearly $142,000,000. Now, if by Radical financiering it costs $142,000,000 to pay $101,000,000 of the debt, is it not clear that the slower the debt is paid the better it will be for the country. Why anticipate the payment at such a cost, and drain the country of the money it so much needs at home, to send to Europe to buy bonds not yet due?

☞ The amount known to have been stolen by Radical officials since Grant came into power, only amounts to a little over twenty-five millions; but this does not include the hundreds of millions realized for the sale of war material since the close of the war, and of which no official account has been rendered to the people.—Age.

☞ A love letter, picked up in Springfield, Illinois, had the following paragraph: "My best loved one, I chawed the postage stamp on your last letter all to thunder, because I knew you licked it on."—Lynchburg Republican.

The Radical Campaign.

We have not over-estimated the strength of the war-feeling North, nor the necessity of quieting that feeling to give the Democracy a showing in its advocacy of constitutional liberty. And this great fact of the Northern war feeling seems to be entirely ignored by those who are pressing upon our Northern Democratic friends, in their State battles now going on, their Southern opposition to the programme of those friends.

If, as is claimed, the movement to bury war issues does not represent the Democrat masses North, if not one in ten indorse it, if it is the concocted treachery of a parcel of tricksters of a corrupt ring to defeat Democratic opposition to centralism, then there is no need of this hot Southern interference in the matter. The Northern Democracy will rectify the matter themselves without the damaging meddling of Southern influence in their local contests which influence is so much dead weight for them to carry. The South loses nothing by saying nothing about it, while our Northern friends will not only as well kill the alleged treachery, but escape the incubus of Southern contribution to the material with which the Radicals inflame the war feeling and make the honest masses North believe that the South meditates a new rebellion, or refuses to concede the legitimate fruits of the war.

The Southern Democracy preserves its record and integrity as well by judicious silence in such a contest as is waxing North, as by a blatant agitation of ultra Southern opinion by old Southern political leaders, when such agitation affords the Radicals a weapon to bang our own heads with.

Our intelligent and esteemed friend of the Savannah News finds it hard to understand that an "uncompromising adhesion to principle' by a Southern Democrat is consistent with silence about the new movement, as it is being pushed by the Northern Democracy in its local contests North. And it says we do the Northern Democrats injustice in attributing the new movement to them as a body district from us of the South, and it reiterates the charge that the masses of the Northern Democracy condemn the new movement.

Now that is the very thing that we want to know. The programme originated at the North. We have had nothing to do with it, and we propose to have the South, in the light of its seemingly irreconcilable divisions of opinion on the matter, withhold discussion of it, and let the Northern Democrats decide it for themsevles in their local fights. Our friend would now make it national; we would not. Our silence yields no principle, and it is therefore not inconsistent with principle. It is simply good judgment not to embarrass our allies North in their special and independent skirmishes. They are capable of discussing it thoroughly and deciding it properly. Our interference but gives aid to the enemy.

So far from this being the proper "seed time" for our Southern ideas, we think that some of our friends are wasting the very best sort of seed in the very middle of winter on ground that isn't fit for planting; and we very much fear that the prospects hereafter for a crop are being fatally injured.

Let the fact of the Northern war-feeling be kept in view. This has got to be overcome before we can ever reach favorable results. It is the heigth of impolicy to ignore the state of sentiment North in laying off the programme for the coming National contest. The unfortunate Southern agitation of the new movement is simply feeding the war-feeling North, retarding Democratic success and paving the way for another National Democratic defeat in 1872.

And to show that we are not mistaken, we give extracts from the speeches of two distinguished Northern Republicans, able men and representative men, Horace Greeley and Secretary Boutwell. They will show how skilfully the war-feeling is being played upon, and also show that our Southern people in agitating the New Departure are playing right into their hand.

Says Mr. Greeley, at Warren, Ohio, on the 20th September:

"Being as we are nearly on the eve of a Presidential contest, can the Democratic party afford to take power at this time? This is a question which is not usually considered by American politicians. It is the correct belief whenever we can clutch power, then is the time to take it, but in England and other countries a better and a wiser rule prevails. Gladstone, Disraeli, or any of the great statesmen of England, any time for the last century, will consider, as they have always considered. "Is my position such, are my relations to my party and that party's relations to the country such, that I can afford now to take power?" The Democratic party went out of power in 1860 by its own act. It was perfectly able to have maintained its ascendency, but the Democrats quarrelled and threw their power away. I think it was for the good of the country; but the fact remained that the party chose, as it were, to go out of power—divided, fought with itself, and abdicated power. It is the common reproach of parties that they will

and to keep it; but in this case the Democratic party chose to renounce power at the next election. It was plainly seen by every sober test that it was in no condition to return to power, and it is still in the same condition. If the Democratic party were in power, its members of Congress would be men who fought in the rebel armies or who were high in the rebel councils. They would be necessarily the chief advisers of the Administration, and they would necessarily be averse to raising revenue, imposing taxes for the purpose of paying off the debt which was the means of their subjugation. They would inevitably be hostile to the policy of paying high taxes, in order to pay the debt due to the creditors of the Union, while the creditors of the Confederacy found their obligations of no value."

If our old political leaders will continue to try to force their views on the Northern Democracy in its very local fights, and to obtain leadership of the party, we need look for no other result than the successful appeal by the Radicals to the war feeling of the Northern masses, and a continued defeat for constitutional government. We do think, in all deference to honest differences of opinion, and with all respect to the honest men disagreeing with us, that inactivity is better than this damaging activity.

To illustrate further we quote from Mr. Boutwell's speech in Ohio a day or two ago:

"At the beginning of the war, and during its continuance, the Republican organization was the only political organization that stood firmly, and always and everywhere against the rebellion and in support of the Union. But for the existence, power and firmness of that organization the Union would have been lost. It controlled most of the old free States. By its power it placed those States unreservedly on the side of the government. Its patriotic policy attracted multitudes from the Democratic party, not to its own ranks merely, but to the ranks of the Army of the Republic. Thus was the nation saved. Now in time of peace we are brought face to face with a policy which may be stated in three propositions: First—The Democratic party does not accept the constitutional amendments as right in themselves, although, as we affirm, they are the only national guarantee for the principles on which the war was prosecuted, and the only security for the rights of four millions of human beings, emancipated on the 1st of January, 1863."

☞ The New York World publishes from what it vouches as "a responsible source," on authority "to be furnished if required," that General Kilpatrick has asked and received ten thousand dollars for advocating the election of Mr. Walsh, in the present canvass in New Jersey.

☞ Governor Bullock is in clover at the Fifth Avenue, and will not return to Georgia for several days. They don't seem to be lonely, down there, without him.—Republican Banner.

The Extravagance of a Republican Administration.

The National Democratic Resident Executive Committee at Washington have just compiled and issued the following tabular statement, showing why taxes are high, and illustrating Radical corruption and extravagance:

GOVERNMENT EXPENDITURES UNDER GRANT, COMPARED WITH DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATIONS.

Administration.	Period.	Total Cost.	Cost per Annum.	Population.	Cost per Capita.
Jackson's	8 years	$145,792,976 30	$18,224,094 52	14,000,000	$1.16, exclusive of interest and principal of public debt.
Van Buren's	4 years	120,729,810 15	30,182,452 53	17,000,000	1.78, exclusive of interest and principal of public debt.
Polk's	4 years	147,342,853 34	36,835,713 33	21,000,000	1.75, exclusive of interest and principal of public debt.
Pierce's	4 years	212,056,938 94	53,014,035 78	27,000,000	1.97, exclusive of interest and principal of public debt.
Buchanan's	4 years	263,661,197 76	65,915,249 44	30,000,000	2.19, exclusive of interest and principal of public debt.
Total	24 years	$889,592,366 39
Grant's	1 year	$190,796,355 00	$190,796,355 00	40,000,000	$4.76, exclusive of interest and principal of public debt.
Grant's	1 year	411,255,477 63	411,255,477 63	40,000,000	10 28, including principal and interest on public debt.

Average cost per capita for twenty-four years under Democratic administrations, $1 77 (including expense of Mexican war.)

Cost under Republican administration per capita, $4 76 (including receipts for property and war material sold.)

Whole cost for twenty-four years under Democratic administrations, $889,592,366 39!

Amount of revenue collected from the people by the present administration per annum, $411,255,477 63; for twenty-four years, $9,870,131,463 12!

An expenditure of $1 77 (the average per capita under Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, Pierce and Buchanan,) with our present population (40,000,000) would be $70,800,000. Grant spends $190,796,355 per annum, exclusive of principal and interest on the public debt!

The total cost, including principal and interest on the public debt, during the above named Democratic administrations, averaged less than $2 per capita. Amount of Federal taxes extorted by Grant's administration during the last fiscal year, $411,255,477 63 (as stated by the Radical campaign document, styled "National Finances," page ,4) which is an average of $10 28 per capita, estimating the population at 40,000,000.

NOTE.—The Lincoln administration is omitted, for the reason that the extraordinary expenditures of that administration were occasioned by the war, and could not be fairly compared with Grant's or previous administrations, although the cost of the Florida and Mexican wars were paid by the above named Democratic administrations.

A Rare Chance for Newspaper Men.

Finding, after several years' experience, the duties of the editorial chair and the cares of proprietorship not only incompatible, but exhaustive of both mind and body, I have determined to change my occupation for one less laborious and exacting. I therefore offer at private sale the Savannah Republican, including newspaper and job offices.

Of the rank of the Republican among the public journals of the South, it, perhaps, does not become me to speak. The public however has been kind enough to class it among the foremost in character and influence. It is the oldest newspaper in the South, being now in its seventieth year. It has a good circulation for the times, which, with a little effort, may be largely increased; while its local and general advertising patronage is fully equal to that of any paper in the State. Firmly established in the most prosperous and progressive city of the South, the paper cannot fail, with judicious and energetic management, to yield a large income to its proprietors. The job office is supplied with presses, type and other material of the latest styles, and has a custom that will keep several workmen constantly and profitably employed.

The property will be sold for cash. For further information, apply personally or by letter to the undersigned. J. R. SNEED, Savannah, Ga.

We take pleasure and pain both in inserting the above for our worthy brother of the quill, Colonel Sneed. Pleasure, because we are glad to aid him; pain, because we shall regret to see him leave Georgia Journalism, which he has illustrated by ability, patriotism, sound judgment, and unswerving purity.

The opportunity is an excellent one for any one desiring to get hold of a well-established daily.

A Russian Dance.

The hardest kind of amusement for females ever gotten up must be the Russian peasant dances. Think of a girl going through a long dance without speaking or smiling! The following is an account of the dance:

The dancers stand apart—a knot of young men here, a knot of maidens there—each sex by itself, and silent as a crowd of mutes. When the piper breaks into a tune, a youth pulls off his cap and challenges a girl with a wave and a bow. If the girl is willing, she waves her handkerchief in token of assent; the youth advances, takes a corner of the handkerchief in his hand, and leads his lassie round and round. No word is spoken and no laugh is heard. Stiff with cords and rich with braids, the girl moves heavily by herself, going round and round, and never allowing her partner to touch her hand. The pipe goes droning on for hours in the sad key and measure; and the price of merit in this "circling," as the dance is called, is given by spectators to the lassie who, in all that summer revelry, has never spoken and never smiled."

We understand a person designated as United States Commissioner is going around the country taking evidence in behalf of parties who wish to prefer claims against the United States for property lost during the war. This commissioner makes considerable charges, we understand, for his services. Our advice to our people is to have nothing to do with it. We do not believe anything will ever be paid to any of them. They will, therefore, be throwing away their money. We believe the whole thing to be an electioneering dodge by the Radicals. These commissioners are sent around to get Radical votes, and, in the end, those who employ the commissioners will lose their money for their pains.

☞ A clergyman meeting a little boy of his acquaintance, said: "This is quite a stormy day, my son!" "Yes, sir," said the boy, "this is quite a wet rain." The clergyman, thinking to rebuke such hyperbole, asked the boy if he knew of any other than wet rain. "I never knew personally of any other," said the boy, "but I have read in a certain book of a time when it rained fire and brimstone, and I guess that wasn't wet rain—not much it wasn't."

☞ The Newbern Journal of Commerce says that it is impossible to convince the colored people in that section that the tidal wave is a myth. They are holding meetings, night and day, praying and exhorting their brethren to prepare for the flood.

Agricultural Items.

[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

One county in Tennessee this season produced 400,000 bushels of peanuts.

Let every farmer select good, unmixed wheat for seed for the coming season. Pure seed makes better bread, and commands a higher price in market than the mixed.

There is a volume of truth in the old maxim:

"No bone-dust, no turnips; no turnips no wheat;
No wheat and no turnips, no cattle, no meat;
No turnips, no cattle, no manure in the yard,

An English chemist finds by experiment that it requires 25 pounds of milk, 100 of turnips, 50 of potatoes, 50 of carrots, 8 of oat meal, 7½ of barley meal, and 3½ of beans to make one pound of flesh.

The fruit crop of the Southern and Middle States this season is a good one. Though dried fruit is not a favorite article of food at the South, it is in the Northern and Middle States, and the cultivation and drying of fruit pays our people. The price of dried peaches and apples this season should be a good one.

A Western dairyman says the best remedy he has found for preventing cows holding up their milk is to take a log chain, double it, then lay it gently over the cow's back so that the ends of the chain will clear the ground. The cow loses the power of holding up her milk, and after a few trials will forget the habit.

The cotton picking season is now about on our planters. And care and pains in picking, ginning, and preparing the lint for market, has much to do with the price it commands. Damp cotton should be dried before going to the gin, it then is not so liable to be napped, or cut; it will not leave as much cotton on the seeds, and when exposed in market for sale will sample better. Dry cotton will gin much better, and it can be ginned more rapidly dry than when damp. Another thing about cotton, the gin will take the dirt out of it better than when wet.

Rival companies have aroused a street railway war in Oakland, and the common council has got mixed up in the fight. The people are disgusted.

The Los Angels Star l ears that several old claims on ther San Gabriel river have been relocated recently, and those now being worked "pan out well."

W. R. Cranna, of San Francisco, sued the Figaro for libel, and claims damages to the amount of $20,000. The Figaro compromised by paying the plaintiff $1 in gold.

George H. Ensign, of 'Frisco, took a dose of laudanum the other day. He wanted to die, but an able-bodied doctor and a stomach-pump insisted on his staying a little longer.

An experimen in cotton raising is being made near Knight's Lanling, in Yolo county, upon reclaimed swamp land. Although the seed was planted very late in the season, the crop is very promising.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, October 4.—Extensive preparations have been made by the navy department to meet Alexis. The naval fleet, under command of Vice Admiral Rowan, receives the Russians off Sandy Hook. The best available ships in the service will be in the reception fleet. The Grand Duke will be saluted with an admirable salute. It is thought he will come to Washington immediately, and receive no hospitalities until he has paid his respects to the government.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, October 4.—The Triennial General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States assembled at Emanuel Church in this city to-day. The edifice was crowded during the morning exercises. The Right Reverend Johns, of Virginia, preached a sermon, after which the Bishops disrobed and were called to order by Presiding Bishop Smith, of Kentucky.

A resolution was passed to proceed in body to Grace Church for organization.

Their Lordships the Bishop of Litchfield and the Right Reverend Dr. Venable, Bishop of Nassau, were among the deputies on the floor. The Hon. Hamilton Fish and Ex-Senator Stevenson were present.

NEW YORK.

ROCHESTER, October 4.—The Convention was called to order by Mr. Tilden, Chairman of the State Central Committee. Clarkson N. Potter was made temporary chairman. In his address he called upon the Convention to purge and purify the party of corruption. Horatio Seymour's presence in the Convention was greeted with enthusiastic applause. A communication was read from the Tamany Hall delegation asserting that they don't wish to embarrass the Convention by calling for a rigid examination of the charges of corruption in New York. They waive the right to participate in the Convention, and pledge support to the ticket nominated.

After recess the convention assembled at 5 o'clock. It was announced that General McQuade, contesting delegate from Oneida, in the interest of harmony, had withdrawn his claim to a seat.

Francis Kirnan was invited to a seat.

Committees on permanent organization, resolutions, and contested seats were appointed, and a recess taken till 7 o'clock.

It is generally believed that the convention will complete its business and adjourn to-night. The proceedings were most orderly and harmonious. Ex-Governor Seymour would have been tendered the permanent chairmanship, but business engagements prevented his remaining to the close. Lieutenant Governor Beech will probably be chosen.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

COLUMBIA, October 4.—Ample preparations are making for the third annual fair of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society. The fair will open on the 6th of November next, and close on the 11th following. About seven thousand dollars in premiums will be distributed. Early, the distinguished ex-Confederate. Also, a grand ball will come off during the week under the auspices of the South Carolina Club. It is expected that Columbia will be crowded with visitors.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, October 4.—The Chicago Journal says: "The President, while in this city, stated that to his knowledge the charges of the New York Tribune against Collector Murphy are without foundation; that he sees no reason for removing him, and will not gratify the clamors of those who have personal or factious objects in view."

PRUSSIA.

DARMSTADT, October 4.—At a meeting of the Protestants representing the various portions of the German Empire, now being held in this city for the purpose of discussing the condition of the Protestant religion in Germany, a declaration was adopted setting forth that it is to the interest of Germany to oppose the doctrine of Papal infallibility, as that dogma is inimical to the sovereignty of the State and the liberties of the people, and destructive of that freedom of conscience which is the base of all pure religion; that the establishment of the Order of Jesus must be prohibited.

FRANCE.

VERSAILLES, October 4.—Another court-martial has been ordered for the trial of military offenders arrested during the late war or since, under charges resulting from operations during its progress. Eminent officers who surrendered their forces to the Germans will be brought before court.

ITALY.

ROME, October 4.—The Italian government has determined that no Professor of the University of Rome will be allowed to continue to exercise his function without taking the oath of allegiance to Italy. The oath has been tendered on this basis.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

ROCHESTER, October 4.—After recess the Convention organized permanently by adopting the report of the committee and making Clarkson N. Potter President of the Convention.

The platform submitted by the Committee on Resolutions arraigns the National Administration as false to its pledges and constitutional obligations in prolonging dissensions, refusing amnesty to submissive citizens, squandering lands, etc., and in taking strides fatal to republican institutions; recognizes the emancipation of freedmen of the South; their enfranchisement and perfect equality before the law is an inevitable sequence of the civil war, and holds it to be the duty of all to sustain them in the enjoyment of their established rights, and aid them in promoting their welfare. They denounce the management of affairs in New York, and will look with satisfaction on the punishment of all on whom the guilt can be fixed.

The platform also calls on the next Legislature to provide for further reform in the city charter, which shall, among other things, secure an early opportunity for the people of the city to choose municipal officers; the liability of the Mayor of New York, with all Mayors of cities, to be removed by the Governor in the same manner as Sheriffs are now removed by him, on proof before him of malfeasance or neglect of duty; an election in the spring of the year, so as to place in the hands of the people the power to make a change in the city government.

The resolutions also say that while ready and determined to purge the local administration of abuses, we must not lose sight of the duty of correcting all prevailing corruption in the Federal Government. Congress and the Executive demand some other safeguard than the registry laws for preventing fraud in elections; praise the Democratic State administration; declare that the government should levy no tax on imports except for revenue purposes. The resolutions also heartily compliment Governor Hoffman. After their adoption, the Convention adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow.

TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, October 4.—At the Chickasaw races, the Bradley stake for 2 year olds, mile dash race, was won by Bazaine, beating Rufe Hunt, Emma McCormick, Bombshell, and Delta; time 148½. Bombshell was the favorite in the first race, in the second race Foster was the favorite. The track was a little heavy. Attendance good.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, October 4.—A special to the News from Green Bay says the fires in the woods between there and Michigan have extended across Fox river, and cover a strip of thirty miles. In Suwanee and Oconto counties, the large lumbering towns of Marquette and Pishtego are threatened with destruction. The fires are now raging over three hundred square miles of territory. About one hundred families have been burned out of house and home.

Farm buildings, bridges and fences are swept away and thousands of square miles of valuable pine woods have been destroyed. The entire population are fighting fire without success. All supplies of food for man and beast are destroyed and starvation during the coming winter stares them in the face.

MEXICO.

CITY OF MEXICO, September 3, via HAVANA, October 4.—The elections are closed, and Juarez has a majority of eighteen in Congress. His election is certain, and Congress has nothing to do but go through the form of choice between the rival candidates. It is believed there will be no important revolutionary movement following this result. Confidence has been restored in nearly all parts of the Republic.

There is some commotion in Oxaca in consequence of a report that the Partizans of Diaz, the rivals of Juarez in the contest for the Presidency, are making military preparations with the view of compelling the secession of the States of Oxaca, Chipa, and Tabbasco from the Mexican Union. The plan of Diaz is said to be to combine with the mal-contents in Guatemala, revolutionize that republic and form an independent government by its union with the Southern States of Mexico. Congress has been organized by election, with Gabriel Mancora as President, and Francis Clordotijada, as Vice-President.

GWINNETT COUNTY "BOYS."—The parties from Gwinnett county, charged with whipping a colored man, will have a hearing this morning before United States Commissioner W. B Smith.

DRESS GOODS.—Phillips, Flanders & Co., are now offering at reasonable prices, the largest and best assortment of ladies dress goods, ever before offered by them. Give them a call before you make purchases.

RURAL SOUTHERNER.—The October number contains an excellent article on the Atlanta Rolling Mill, with a wood cut engraved by Mr Hyde, an artist residing in Atlanta. The original and selected articles are interesting and instructive.

IN THE SHOE BUSINESS.—Mr. R. A. White, of this city, and lately connected with THE CONSTITUTION office, as city agent, is now with Messrs. Heyman & Bro., wholesale dealer in boots and shoes. Mr. White is a good and energetic clerk.

CROWN SHERRY AND PORT WINES.—We are indebted to Mr. A. L. Richardson, commission merchant and importer of Spanish Wines, Savannah, Georgia., for a sample of the above wines. Having fully tested them, we can recommend them to all who desire a pure and genuine article.

SAD!—The last member of that glorious quartette "left blooming alone," was seen on Whitehall street mourning—"alas, my companions are gone." What a sad scene. Let him give them a Rowland for their Oliver, and imitate the example of Fitten, Hill and Henderson!

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, HON. JOHN ERSKINE, JUDGE, PRESIDING.—The jury yesterday, in the case of Shepherd vs. The Bank of the Empire State, returned a verdict for $3,050, the amount claimed, with interest from the date of demand, and ten per cent for damages. Hon. William Dougherty for plaintiff. Hillyer & Bro. and Fouche for defendant.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.—The side-walk from James' Bank corner to Whitehall crossing is being flagged with granite.

The City Hall is being renovated, repaired, repainted, replastered, and made to look as good as new.

BIG AUCTION SALE.—One of the largest sales of sewing machines in the South will come off this morning at the Live Auction Mart, under DeGive's Opera House. Sewing machines of all the popular makes will be sold at half cash—balance payable in monthly instalments. A large lot of furniture will also be sold. Mayson is a live man, and Barrett is his auctioneer.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Captain Foster Blodgett yesterday received a telegram from Newberry, South Carolina, announcing the sudden death at that place yesterday of Miss Cenia Pool, sister of Mrs. Foster Blodgett. Miss Pool was an amiable, intelligent and accomplished young lady. "To know her was to love her." She died at the age of nineteen. We sympathise with her bereaved family and relatives.

PERSONAL.—Our clever friend, McMichael, of the Thomaston Herald, was in the city yesterday. We are pleased to learn that the Herald is flourishing.

Sol. Green is in town—"come to see the peoples."

E. D. Graham, of Dade; B. M. Palmer and family, of New Orleans; L. A. Jordan and E. Bond, of Macon; David Dickson and wife, of Sparta; Hon. T. J. Speer and wife, of Pike; N. L. Hutchins and J. P. Simmons, of Lawrenceville, are at the Kimball House.

DEKALB SUPERIOR COURT.—Thomas Cochran was found guilty yesterday of larceny from the house, and sentenced to six months imprisonment. The court appointed Colonel W. L. Goldsmith and Captain Sidney Dell to defend the accused, which they did with marked ability.

Judge Hopkins sentenced Rev. M. D Wood, convicted of seduction, to the penitentiary for twenty years. The motion for a new trial in this case will be heard in the course of ten days.

Court adjourned yesterday evening until next term.

SCENE AT THE PASSENGER DEPOT.—Enter a Judge, several lawyers, and a drummer with a big base drum, behind the Judge.

Facetious lawyer—Judge, is that your baggage? pointing to the drum.

Judge, with frowning face, irate countenance and stern mien—No, sir!

Man, with drum, shaking his drum stick at lawyer—I let you know, sir, that I carry baggage for no man!

MUSIC.—It was our good fortune, a few evenings since, to be at Phillips & Crew's, and hear some excellent music by Mrs. M. E. Robinson and the charming Miss Ida Buffington on the piano. Mrs. Robinson is a superior performer on the piano. The piano used was that favorite of the Southern ladies—"Knabe's." Mrs. R., with a delicacy of touch unsurpassable and a grace inexpressible, gave "The Last Rose of Summer," a selection from Robert Le Diable, and a march that she improvised on the occasion. It was a rare treat, and was enjoyed by those who had the pleasure of listening to it.

HOLBROOK, THE PRINCE OF HATTERS.—Kemo Kimo Waritari walked solemnly down Whitehall yesterday. Kemo is a native of Japan, and has come to study our manners, customs, fashions and things. He looked sharply as he walked, and walked sharply as he looked. Suddenly his attention was arrested. He stops before the window of Holbrook, the original and inimitable hatter on Whitehall, exclaiming, "Iko Piko Jambo Ree," the English of which is, "Beautiful, by thunder!" He enters, and soon comes out wearing one of Holbrook's superb tiles. If he wasn't happy, his looks belied him. Holbrook has one of the largest stocks in the South, and dealers will find an ample supply at low figures.

SENATORIAL DISTRICT COURT.—The 35th Senatorial District Court was in session yesterday.

O. C. Carroll was found guilty of keeping open doors on the Sabbath day, and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

John Asbury plead guilty to the charge of larceny from the house, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or 10 days on the public works.

Clorro Lowry (col.) was arraigned on the charge of cheating and swindling, in using the bank book of another party, and obtaining money thereon from the Freedmen's Savings Bank. Found guilty and sentence reserved.

Smith Washington was found guilty of stealing twenty pounds of lard (not S. R. G) from Governor Brown, and sentenced to pay a fine of $30 or six months on the public works. This is only $3 50 per pound for the lard.

The charge of simple larceny against William Backman was withdrawn upon his paying the costs.

The charge of assault and battery against Edwin Day was withdrawn upon the payment of costs by the plaintiff.

The court adjourned until half past nine this morning.

Judge Lawrence, District Attorney Irwin, J. Dixie Collins, the Clerk, and Bailiff Queen, are all at their

RAILROAD CONDUCTORS' LIFE ASSURANCE.—For the information of the railroad conductors of this section of country, we republish the following extract from President Coulter's statement, of the affairs of the Railroad Conductors' Life Assurance Association:

The plan of this Association is peculiar and its results thus far are unusually gratifying. Each member pays one dollar whenever any other member loses his life or is injured in the discharge of his duty, and the total of these sums is paid to the party injured, or the family of the insured party who is killed. The President makes the following statement about the Association.

"The most sanguine expectations of its founders have been more than realized, so that they can look back upon the result of their efforts in behalf of the widows and fatherless children of deceased members with no small degree of pride. During the three years our Company has been in existence, the sum of $254,478 00 has been paid out to the families of deceased or permanently disabled members, at a cost of $60 to each member, averaging$ 20 per annum. The annual report for the fiscal year, ending August 31, 1871, shows that there have been forty-four assessments made during the past year. Eight of these assessments were for cases of total disability, to whom was paid the sum of $24,564. The total amount paid during the year was $140,691. I ask you to examine carefully the statistics accompanying this compiled from our Secretary's books, at Ohio.

The operations of our Company for a period of three years just closed, have demonstrated in the most practicable manner that our lives are safely insured—that our families are liberally provided for whenever it may be our lot to be called hence to that bourne from which no traveler returns, and that too at a cost of about one-third of what would be charged for a Policy corresponding in amount by any Life Insurance Company in the United States; at the same time with a greater certainty of prompt and full justice being accorded to our families when we are gone. The extremely hazardous nature of our vocation should convince every conductor that it is their imperative duty, a duty they owe to their families, to lose no time in availing themselves of such favorable means as this Company affords in placing those dear to them beyond the reach of destitution; especially when it is known that all the money collected goes directly to the families of deceased members, and not to extravagant officers of Insurance Companies, or for rents of gorgeously furnished offices.

I would here suggest that the convention take into consideration the propriety of fixing the amount of policy to be paid to families of deceased at $3,000 00, a sum which is believed to be ample to carry out the objects of the Association, while the proposed limitation will reduce the amount of each future assessment; for instance, should the Association number four thousand members, each assessment would be seventy-five cents instead of one dollar, with five thousand members each assessment would be sixty cents, and with six thousand members fifty cents.

Whole amount paid on claims for year ending August 21st, 1871	$140,784 00
Largest	3,321 00
Smallest	2,562 00
Average	3,197 62

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.—October 4, 1871.—Argument of No. 4, Rome Circuit, G. W. Featherston et al. vs. J. S. Noyes, tenant, was concluded.

The court then took up the injunction case from the Cherokee Circuit, which had been set down for a hearing to-day. It is Noble Brothers et al. vs. The State of Alabama. Injunction, from Dade.

E. D. Graham, D. A. Walker, W. H. Dabney, J. A. W. Johnson, E. M. Dodson, J. G. Jackaway, J. W. H. Underwood, for plaintiffs in error.

Nisbet & Jackson, contra.

Pending the concluding argument in this case the court adjourned till 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

APPLEBY & HELME.—In another column will be found the advertisement of Appleby & Helme of New York, manufacturers of the celebrated Railroad Mills Snuff, Maccoboy, French Rappee, Scotch and Lundyfoot Snuffs, Maccoboy and French Snuff Flour, etc. Samples of the Maccoboy and other snuffs can be seen at the office of Wood & Brother, brokers and cotton commission merchants, Atlanta. We learn from Messrs. Wood & Brother that these snuffs are meeting with great success in this section, and are fast rising in popular favor. Messrs. Appleby & Helme are taking great pains in their manufacture. Their house has been established since 1825. Mr. Helme, we learn, is a Southern man, and gave good service to the Confederate cause up to the close of the war. We trust that as Messrs. Appleby & Helme manufacture a good article, and feel that the Southern trade is not to be despised, that their snuff will be taken in this section.

WHO WILL IT BE?—It is rumored that the aspirant for the honors of the Mayoralty who will give the largest amount towards the fund for building a Methodist church at Rutledge, will be elected. Who is the happy man?

In addition to the manufacture of all the ordinary kinds of Picture Frames, Phillips & Crew are now prepared to do Gilding in the best style of the art. Old Portraits, and Mirror Frames made as good as new.

Atlanta Price-Current.

[CORRECTED DAILY.]

CONSTITUTION OFFICE,
ATLANTA, October 4, 6 o'clock, P. M.

As noted yesterday, flour is firm at an advance of fifty cents per barrel. The advance is caused by advance in freights from the West, and the demand for Wheat for exportation to the continent. In New York there are said to be orders now for 20,000 barrels of flour, for delivery this month and the next. The demand from South America and the West Indies has been liberal. Freight has advanced 19½ cents per barrel on flour from Indiana. This, with the increase in price of Wheat, is equal to an advance of $2 per barrel in the past thirty days. POLITICAL HITS.

Hubbard's Northwest has the following pasquinades on Senator Sherman:

Who cares for Connolly or Tweed?
Remember Sherman's loyal greed.

John Sherman is a millionaire!
A fact for which we would not care
If he had got his millions fair.

Poor as a church mouse Sherman went
To Congress when he fir t was sent—
He now is rich as Stewart or Astor,
And made his money ten times faster.

And this on several Senators who went to Washington poor, and soon became rich:

Before the triumph of the loyal crew
There were no Senators who wealthy grew;
They did not speculate—they scorned to steal,
Their only care was for the public weal.

CHEROKEE PILLS NO. 2.

For the Removal of Obstructions and the Insurance of Regularity in the Recurrence of Monthly Periods.

THESE PILLS are an unfailing Female Regulator, intended for special cases; those obstinate ones where milder and cheaper medicines fail.

They are composed of the most active and powerful principles of plants, roots and berries, so highly concentrated that each pill contains more medical strength than a whole box or bottle of ordinary dollar medicine in the market. Although powerful, yet so mild and pleasant in their operation, that the most feeble can take them with perfect safety.

They may be safely used at any age, and at any period, except during the First Three Months, during which the unfailing nature of their effects would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

All letters seeking information or advice will be promptly, freely and discreetly answered.

Each box contains about 100 pills, and wrapped in white paper printed in deep red letters, with full and explicit directions enclosed.

The Cherokee Pills No. 2 are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of this; those which they can purchase at a cheap price and make more money. As you value your health do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these $5 pills, and take no other. If the Druggist will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter and we will send them to you by mail, free of postage, securely sealed from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms, and write post office, county, State and name of writer, and enclose postage stamp for reply.

We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet, entitled "MAN AND WOMAN AS INVALIDS," to every reader of this paper. Address as follows:

THE SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR,

CONSTITUTED by the homes of the people, received the Great Award of the Highest Sales, and have left all rivals far behind them, for they sold in 1870, One Hundred and Twenty-seven Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-three Machines.

The Singer Manufacturing Company sold over the Florence Sewing Machine Company	110,173	Machines.
Sold over the Wilcox & Gibbs' Sewing Machine Company	98,943	"
Sold over the Weed Sewing Machine Company	92,831	"
Sold over the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company	70,431	"
Sold over the Howe Maching Company	52,677	"
Sold over the Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company	44,625	"

It is the most simple and easily regulated Machine now in use.

The shuttle gives an even tension from the full to the empty bobbin.

Makes the most durable, elastic and smooth stitch.

Stitching the softest muslin without drawing it into the feed, and from that to heavy cloth or leather without changing the tension, making it capable of a greater range of work than any other machine made.

We use the straight needle, and it will do more and finer work than the curved needles.

The work moves from you instead of sideways, which is much easier to manage.

Our machinery is all protected from dust.

Our corder, tucker, gatherer, quilter, trimmer, fringer, binder, hemmer, braider, feller and embroidery attachment are simple and easily used.

We have the best of silks of our own manufacture at wholesale and retail, of all colors and numbers.

We will place the Singer in your family for a trial with any machine you may wish to try with it.

Examine before purchasing.

A CARD TO OIL BURNERS.

BEING the manufacturers of more than four fifths of the Kerosene Oil used in Atlanta and vicinity, (as well as through the entire South,) we think best to inform our customers that the recent inspection of oil in Atlanta (reported below Government fire test) either do not refer to our brand, or are incorrect, or are fraudulent.

We know our business as manufacturers, and shall stand behind our products at all times. We sell no oil which will not bear proper inspection, and hence are not to be alarmed, and we defy any one, and every one, in law or out of law, in business competition or out of it, whether from Georgia or New York, to establish any just claim against our oil.

We shall continue to sell through our agents, Messrs. Carley, Duck & Co., of Atlanta, a better quality of Kerosene, and for lower prices, than any other Refinery in the United States can afford, and the doors of all our warehouses, whether in Louisville, Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans, Mobile, or Atlanta, are always open to Inspectors, whether appointed by City, State, or United States, each of which Inspectors we welcome, but all of whom we defy.
